"Reaching for the Skies"

Right from the start we have believed that,
if you have passion,
the sky's the limit. What drives us at Texchem is a passion for excellence in everything we do.

It is this that has enabled us to grow from a humble dyestuffs trader with a workforce of seven, into a multinational conglomerate with a workforce that will soon exceed 3,000. And it is this passion that will continue to propel us to still greater heights.

Today, our vision is to become a US$1 billion business by the year 2010.
That is why we are now directing our passion for excellence towards globalisation.
